ADVICES AND QUERIES ON PERSONAL RELATIONSHIPS

In daily relationships with others, both inside and outside the home, our lives as Friends speak immediately and lastingly. In these relationships, our faith may also be severely tested. We are called to respond to that of God in everyone: we are all children of God.

Friends celebrate any union that is dedicated to mutual love and respect, regardless of the unique make-up of the family. We strive to create homes where the Spirit of the Divine resides at the center and where the individual genius of each member is respected and nurtured.

Human sexuality is a divine gift, forming part of the complex union of body, mind and spirit that is our humanity. In a loving adult relationship in a context of mutual responsibility, sexuality brings delight, fulfillment and celebration.

The presence of children carries a special blessing as well as responsibility. Children bring unique spiritual gifts—wonder, resiliency, playfulness and more. Recognize and honor the Divine Light within children and treat them with the dignity and respect that is due to all people. Listen to and learn from children; share with them those values and practices that are central to our own lives. Special care must be given to resolving problems between adults and children in a manner that gives equal weight to the feelings and needs of both children and adults. Tender parenting is one of the critically important peace vocations in our society. Make every effort to offer all parents the personal and institutional support that this challenging work requires.

Take a strong stand against any form of abuse, whether that abuse is minor or severe, and whether it is emotional, physical or sexual in nature. The terrible impact of abuse on the most vulnerable members of our families creates lifelong suffering for its victims and is a major source of violence in our society. Perpetrators are themselves usually victims of similar violence and should be approached with compassion as well as firmness.

- Do I make my home a place of friendliness, joy, and peace, where residents and visitors feel God's presence?
- Are my sexual practices consistent with my spiritual beliefs and free of manipulation and exploitation?
- What barriers keep me from responding openly and lovingly to each person?
- Do we open our thoughts, beliefs, and deep understandings to our children and others who share our lives and our hospitality?
- Do we provide our children and young adults with a framework for active, ongoing participation?

Chico Friends Meeting

Meeting for Business, September 13, 2026
Minutes

I have wondered what it would take for a Meeting to be able to "weary out all contention." What is it that makes loving confrontation so difficult? Is it because we don't know what to do with our negative, angry, hateful feelings in the Quaker context? Are there ways in which we can clear the emotional pathways so that the positive and constructive can find expression?...Friends from the beginning have voiced sensitive concerns about nearly imperceptible to major violations of integrity, have eldered each other in the Light, have prayed together for understanding and vision, have held threshing sessions to clear the air, have held open the hope for redemption and transcendence, have tried what love can do and when all else failed, have suffered defeat and separation. If we are to face up to the complexities of who we are and what we are about as people and not be overwhelmed, then where better to work out the complexities of building community than in this microcosm of our local Meeting? –William O. Brown, 1978

Worship: The meeting opened with worship.
Recording Clerk: The meeting approved Gayle Matson as Recording Clerk for today's Meeting for Business.
In Attendance: Linnea Hanson; Lizz Watling; Tanya Heaston; Tom Head; Kathy Runyan; Janet Leslie; Peter Milbury; Rebecca Senoglu (Clerk); Gayle Matson (Recorder)
Regrets: Christine Rowe, Bill Carlson, Claudia Hanson, Jim Anderson, Bob Runyan, Rick Narad

Clerk's welcome: Clerk Rebecca Senoglu reminded us of the power of having faith in our community and its capacity for love and healing. She also reminded us that if discussions get difficult, any of us can call for silence when needed.

Reports
Witness & Service Committee, Kathy Runyan, committee member, presented the committee's report for clerk Jim Anderson.
The committee has met with the various organizational liaisons to share thoughts about how to inform and encourage Chico Friends to engage with some of our ongoing service ministries. She thanked Friends who have participated in our various initiatives, especially for the food drive for the South Chico Community Assistance Center. She shared some of the various plans and ideas that emerged during the discussion, including discussion tables during fellowship, collaborating with the SCCAC, Thursday action hours to inform our voting, and more, which was detailed in the committee's written report. She described the upcoming Quaker Earthcare Witness Day of Action, including worship, garden work, food and celebration. She noted that we will also be actively cultivating a sense of neighborhood connection by circulating a flyer and talking with neighbors about the Day of Action and some of the other activities going on here at CFM. Please refer to the written report for details about the North State Housing Summit on September 25th and the Gratitude Walk scheduled for November 7th.
Kathy also presented a building use request in collaboration with the Building & Grounds Committee. The request is from the Chico Library Access to Technology Program, asking to use two small rooms in the Meetinghouse on Saturdays between 9AM and 5PM beginning immediately and for a provisional period of six months.
Concerns about utilities were addressed. Heating the space is not expected to have a significant financial impact on the Meeting but utility costs will be tracked.

MINUTE 01-09-2026: Chico Friends approve the recommendation of the Witness & Service and Building & Grounds Committees to offer the use of the two small rooms in the Meetinghouse on Saturdays between 9AM and 5PM to the Chico Library Access to Technology Program for a provisional period of six months.

Buildings & Grounds Committee: Tanya Heaston, committee clerk, reported for the committee. She noted that previous Buildings & Grounds committees have periodically checked the roof of the Meeting House for needed repairs, and have now concluded that the roof is no longer sound. Leaks have led to dry rot.
Tanya presented three current bids for a new Meeting House Roof. (See attached report.) The Building & Grounds Committee recommends the mid-range bid from Steele's Roofing. The actual bid is $28,900 but does not include permits and dry rot repair. The latter would cost $75/hour plus materials

MINUTE 2-09-2026: Chico Friends approve the recommendation of the Building & Grounds Committee to contract with Steele's Roofing to replace the roof on the Meetinghouse after consulting with the Finance Committee about a process for payment.

Quaker Connect: Quaker Connect apprentice Gayle Matson described the initial "experiment" the apprentices are proposing for CFM. The concept is to open the Meetinghouse to the community for "peace and quiet" several times per week during a three-month period.
Friends asked questions to clarify times on the flier. The question arose whether there will be confusion about whether this is Meeting for Worship or just Peace and Quiet. There is a plan to have a QR code to our webpage with a description to help clarify. There will be instructions provided along with our guidelines for dealing with unsheltered neighbors and for being with guests with mental health issues. It was suggested that we get an article in the newsletter. One Friend recommended that the hosts of the sessions ask a second person to join them so that there is a bit more "coverage" of the building. There was general agreement about the wisdom of that recommendation.

MINUTE 03-09-2026: Chico Friends approve moving forward with the proposed Quaker Connect experiment to offer "Peace & Quiet" sessions in the manner of Friends in the mornings (M-F, one week per month), mid-day and evenings, (twice weekly, throughout the experiment) at the times suggested in the written proposal.
Friends were clear that the hosting should occur in pairs so that there will be better coverage for whatever may arise. The experiment will run during October, November and December. Janet Leslie stood aside.

One Friend expressed special appreciation for the time and inclusion taken with developing this proposal, and for the various kinds of information shared with the Meeting during the process.

Ministry & Oversight Committee, reported by Peter Milbury, committee member
The report described the lack of unity recently on the Ministry & Oversight committee, especially concerning an allegation of harassment by an attender and a subsequent harassment investigation that concluded that the behavior described was problematic, but not actually harassment. Disagreements on the committee regarding this issue resulted in the resignation of two committee members, including the committee clerk.
Despite these difficulties, M&O has completed other work. They are making arrangements to welcome Mark Runyan into membership in Chico Friends Meeting; they have asked the Listening Committee to manage "Friendly Visits" to members of the Meeting and any attenders who request a visit; and they have drafted Advices and Queries on Hurt, Misunderstanding and Gossip, which will be emailed out for your consideration and seasoning.

CFM Clerk Rebecca Senoglu reported that the remaining three members of the committee have developed a plan to cover clerking our Meetings for Worship, hospitality, and pastoral care through the end of the year.

Rebecca also reflected on some "lessons learned" during the past four and a half months of discernment and problem solving, noting that there were things that might have been done differently, but that the laboring with these issues has brought many things to the surface that have needed addressing in order to promote greater healing.

Rebecca asked: "Are we willing to step outside of our own willing in order to discern what God wants from us? Are we willing to choose love, trust, and healing? This is the work of spiritual life." Rebecca asked that we all hold our meeting in prayer. With help from outside our meeting, and with God's love and care and faith in our community, she expressed her faith that we can come through this.

Gratitude was expressed to Rebecca for the transparency being brought forward about these issues that have been swirling, though the sentiment that it would have been more helpful to know more about these issues earlier in the process was also expressed. The Friend noted that lack of transparency can be corrosive. Gratitude and validation was also expressed for Rebecca's words of care, healing and hope.

Another Friend expressed the hope that we can trust one another enough to speak directly to one another when we have conflict or difficult feelings. She also hopes that we will offer to accompany one another to speak directly to those involved when we hear reports of difficulties or hurt.

In addition to the M&O approved Advices and Queries on Hurt and Misunderstanding, Rebecca noted that she will email the draft Harassment Policy to the Meeting community. With help from College Park Quarterly Meeting, and consideration of the new documents that have been created, we hope to be moving forward with more Meeting-wide participation in this matter.

Welcome Mark Runyan by Janet Leslie

Ministry Oversight Committee is planning a special time after worship on October 25 to welcome Mark Runyan into membership in our Meeting. Please plan to stay for the potluck and to know more about Mark. Some of us will have a few words to share about Mark, and we'll be presenting him with a Quaker book of his choosing. And there will be pies for us all to enjoy (because he likes pie more than the more traditional celebratory cake) as well as the usual good food and Friendly company. So please come and share in this gladness!

Quaker Connect Experiment #1: Peace and Quiet by Gayle Matson

The Quaker Connect (QC) project has reached the stage of each participating meeting doing its first experiment. Friends who have attended the many Quaker Connect discussions and events, particularly our sessions with Holly Baldwin, our QC spiritual companion, have offered ideas and helped to mold them into this proposal.

Friends and others have noted that, in this time of stress and turmoil, there is a need for "peace and quiet" and that we have something to offer our community to meet this need. To address this need, and to strengthen our connection with our community, we would like to open the Meetinghouse to the community on a regular schedule over a two to three-month period this Fall.

We originally viewed this as extending the morning week-long worship that has been held one each month recently. Friends have suggested that other times of day might be more successful. In the nature of an experiment, we agree that different times should be tried out.

Therefore, we plan to have the Meetinghouse be opened to the community from early October to mid-December as a place for peace and quiet. We plan to open the Meetinghouse as much as Friends are available and willing to host. The proposed schedule is:

Five days in a row experience	Monday to Friday. One week a month (Oct 5-9, Nov 2-6, Dec. 7-11)	7:30 to 8:30 am
Mid-day	Tuesdays and Thursdays	12:00 to 1:00 pm
Evening	Monday and Wednesday	6:00 to 7:00 pm

This project requires the participation of the Meeting to serve as "hosts." The QC apprentices surveyed the Meeting to determine if there is sufficient interest and commitment to do this. The week-long sessions are already covered and, from the interest expressed, we will have hosts for the other sessions too. Friends were clear that the hosting should occur in pairs so that there will be better coverage for whatever may arise. Everyone in the Meeting is encouraged to attend too.

We are preparing general instructions for those who will serve as hosts. Please note that this peace-and-quiet time will be held in the manner of Friends, but the program does not seek to proselytize. After the quiet period, guests will have a short opportunity to ask questions. We do hope that some visitors may be interested in attending on Sunday mornings as well, and we will develop simple materials to offer them.

Publicity will include a banner on the 16th Street side of the buildings, flyers and bulletin boards at neighborhood locations, at Chico State, and at other locations (we welcome ideas—please email them!).

The Quaker of Olden Time! By John Greenleaf Whittier

The Quaker of the olden time
How calm and firm and true,
Unspotted by its wrong and crime,
He walked the dark earth through.
The lust of power, the love of gain,
The thousand lures of sin
Around him, had no power to stain
The purity within.

With that deep insight which detects
All great things in the small,
And knows how each man's life affects
The spiritual life of all,
He walked by faith and not by sight,
By love and not by law;
The presence of the wrong or right
He rather felt than saw.

He felt that wrong with wrong partakes,
That nothing stands alone,
That whoso gives the motive, makes
His brother's sin his own.
And, pausing not for doubtful choice
Of evils great or small,
He listened to that inward voice
Which called away from all.

O Spirit of that early day,
So pure and strong and true,
Be with us in the narrow way
Our faithful fathers knew.
Give strength the evil to forsake,
The cross of Truth to bear,
And love and reverent fear to make
Our daily lives a prayer

WIDER CHICO AREA COMMUNITY

Chico Peace Vigil by Janet Leslie

The Peace Vigil, Every Saturday in Downtown Chico since 1963. Every Saturday, 10-15 locals show up on the four corners of 3rd and Main Streets from 12:30 to 1:30 pm. On a recent Saturday, I was wearing a Chico Friends Meeting T-shirt with the Love Thy Neighbor (No Exceptions); on the back. Like the banner on our Fellowship Hall. Like what we, as Friends, try to do, fail, and try again. And again.

Come join us! Bring a sign of your own making or choose one (or two) from the collection Bob VanFleet brings each week. The Want Peace? sign that I was holding that day is from the Sacramento Area Peace Action (www.sacpeace.org), printed by Gayle Matson, who I think has more of our Chico Friends Meeting T-shirts for purchase, in shades of Quaker grey. It makes a difference to be out there, and the company is good.
